

IDD EMPLOYMENT & INTERNSHIP SUCCESS: PROJECT SEARCH

NOVEMBER 21, 2023, 12 PM – 1 PM EDT

YOU ARE INVITED to attend a special Lunch n Learn presented by Christine Iglesias from the North Florida School of Special Education. Iglesias will discuss the school's on-campus transition program and how the program prepares their students to become successful full time interns at a medical manufacturing company, which has led to employment.

REGISTER via Zoom at <https://tinyurl.com/2nbdhhs3>. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

CHRISTINE IGLESIAS is a dedicated educator with a diverse background in teaching. She is frequently seeking new and innovative ways to prepare individuals with IDD for the workplace through exposure and in employment programs similar to Project SEARCH. She works as the Community Vocational Coordinator for The North Florida School of Special Education.

ANN ATKINS is the Director of the Transition & Post Graduate Program at The North Florida School of Special Education. She has over 20 years of experience working with the IDD community, and she is passionate about helping young adults reach their full potential.
